Sublet Request/Agreement - 2006

If a stall and feeding pasture horse dies, you can arrange with the Barn Manager to sublet your space for no more than six months. It is the sole right and responsibility of the Manager to locate a sublessee. If none is found, you are required to pay the 'holding' fee or forfeit the space. The Manager may ask you to remove your tack, trunk, and grain bins during your absence.

Boarder: Please fill out the following information and return it to the Barn Manager. You will be notified when your space is filled.
